

Wednesday PENSIONS FOR ALL

Can you afford not to invest in your future?

Wednesday 26th November 2008, 9.00am – 11.00am
Kent Invicta Chamber of Commerce, HQ Ashford. TN24 0LH

Retirement might still seem like a lifetime away and combined with the current economic climate, starting a pension may be the last thing on your mind. But as you could end up spending more than 30 years in retirement, it's never too early to start making necessary plans to ensure you maximise on your pension fund.

Kent Invicta Chamber of Commerce and Pharon Independent Financial Advisers would like to invite you to an educational seminar which will highlight the benefits of pension saving, along with updates on current legislation to assist people in making confident choices about their financial future.

Come along and:

- Hear from experts about the benefits of pension savings
- Gain practical and useful information about future pension investments.
- Understand how changes in legislation may affect you and/or your employees

What's more, expert advice is on hand throughout the day and there will be an opportunity to network. Can you afford to miss out?
